NOTICE FROM BISHOP TALLEY:

We are bound to receive Holy Communion at least once at Easter, commonly known as "Easter duty." Due to the COVID-19 virus, Bishop Talley has dispensed us of this requirement, and encourages us to make a Spiritual Communion instead. An excerpt from his letter says:

"Since the current pandemic has disrupted our ability to administer Holy Communion on a regular basis, I want everyone to have peace of conscience regarding this norm. I, therefore, dispense all laity and religious in the Diocese from the obligation of receiving Holy Communion during the Easter season for this year."

The complete text of Bishop Talley's letter can be found on the Diocese website, cdom.org.

Bishop Talley will celebrate televised Easter Sunday Mass at 7am at the Cathedral on WREG-TV Channel 3.

BAUTIZOS
